

---

Larry,

Thank you for attending and speaking at the Salmon for All 2000 Annual Meeting last week. Your message to the fishermen that the department was working to keep the lower Columbia commercial fishery alive, was certainly well received. We appreciate your encouragement and look forward to working with you to ensure that this goal is met. Again, thanks for your support of the fishermen and the lower Columbia commercial fishing industry.

Bruce Buckmaster, President

